How Can Your Church Benefit?

Teachers

Not every church has enough teachers, and even large churches don't have access to the best seminary professors. Let us provide the teachers and you provide the facilitators and groups of people who want to learn.

Comprehensive

We offer comprehensive programs of study, covering a wide range of subjects such as bible, theology, and spiritual formation that are essential for any Christian to know.

Different levels

Churches need different levels of teaching; we have three. Foundation classes are for all people, Academy classes are university-level, and Institute classes are the classes your pastor attended in seminary.

Trust

You can trust our classes. We are broadly evangelical, not tied to any one church, school, or denomination, governed by our Statement of Faith.

Certification

Certificates provide learners with a comprehensive understanding of various biblical and theological topics at an affordable cost. Learners can deepen their knowledge and grow spiritually with our flexible learning options and the tangible recognition of a Certificate of Completion.

Landing pages

We are offering churches landing pages, your home on BiblicalTraining where you can list the courses and lessons you want your people to attend. Some day you will even be able to build your own classes, mixing your lessons with ours. See bt4.us/lp for details.

A screenshot of the BiblicalTraining website. The page is for Bethel Community Church. The header includes a search bar, a "Donate" button, and a "Log In" button. The main content area features the church's name "Bethel Community Church" and the tagline "Helping people to become faithful followers of Jesus Christ." Below this, there are tabs for "ABOUT", "PROFESSORS", and "CLASSES". The "About" section is active, showing the church's vision and values. A small box indicates "NUMBER OF CLASSES 3". The footer contains the church's website URL, email address, and physical address in Washougal, WA.

We Believe in Community

We believe in the power of learning in a community setting, whether it be through groups or mentor/apprentice relationships. While people can take classes by themselves, our encouragement is to form a group and learn together. You will learn better, grow faster, and more likely stay engaged. Jesus says that we are to teach everyone to obey, but the only way to teach people to obey is through mentoring. We encourage people to listen to the lessons on their own and use precious group time to ask what they have learned about God, themselves, and others, and then be challenged to apply what they have learned.

Student Guides

Be sure to check out the Student Guides for many of our classes. They contain not only lesson outlines but also reflection questions to help groups study. Remember, at the end of every lecture, ask your people what they learned about God, themselves, and others, and then move to practical application.

Joni Eareckson Tada

"Many people with disabilities would love to study at a Christian college, but problems with transportation, finances, and health challenges make it an impossible dream. That dream, however, is coming true for people with disabilities across the country as they study on-line at Biblicaltraining.org. From the comfort of their own home, they can participate in a world-class, seminary-level Biblical Training Institute, free of charge and easy to access on-line. With some of the top academic instructors in the world, Biblicaltraining.org has thrown open wide the doors of higher Christian education for countless persons with disabilities! Whether or not you have physical challenges, I heartily recommend Biblicaltraining.org!"

What are They Saying?

Ezes Egharevba, Minister and Teacher, Canada

Ezes search for a deeper, more personal relationship with God led her to BiblicalTraining after enrolling at Okanagan Bible College in 2022.

“I have been able to apply what I learned in teaching in various departments in ministry, parenting, and in the virtual on-line Prayer Altar, which I coordinate weekly. From the Lecture series offered through Biblical training, which are very easy to understand and relatable, to the books suggested for each course with mentorship from my academic advisor and mentor, I have been able to enrich my life and ministry in every area, 360 degrees.”

Joshua D. de Sagun, Church Pastor, Philippines

Joshua needed an affordable and accessible on-line Master’s degree program. BiblicalTraining was just what he was looking for.

“What amazes me is that biblicaltraining offers free on-line education with the most renowned teachers and authors from different prestigious bible colleges and universities. I am thankful for the reliable teachings. In the Philippines, it’s common to be exposed to heretical teaching. I believe that my relationship with Jesus Christ was all the more connected.”

Noah Middleton, Minister, All For Christ International, Louisiana

Noah has spent the last 25 years working as a missionary spreading the word of God, traveling to over 100 nations. Biblical-

Training enriched his ministry.

“Discovering BiblicalTraining has been a game-changer. My ministry approach has undergone a significant transformation, and my impact has multiplied greatly.”

Joi Michelle Hailey, Rolling Hills Community Church, Oregon

Joi works full time as a Worship Arts Associate Pastor and is a mother of two children. In her spare time, she is pursuing a Master’s degree at Okanagan Bible College.

“I see that God is glorified through what BiblicalTraining is offering because it is educating students theologically and spiritually; each and every student who learns through OBC has the opportunity to spread the gospel of Jesus Christ and point to the goodness of an Almighty God.”

Because Your Spiritual Growth Matters

Who is BiblicalTraining?

We understand that spiritual growth grows out of your understanding of the Bible. BiblicalTraining.org is here to help.

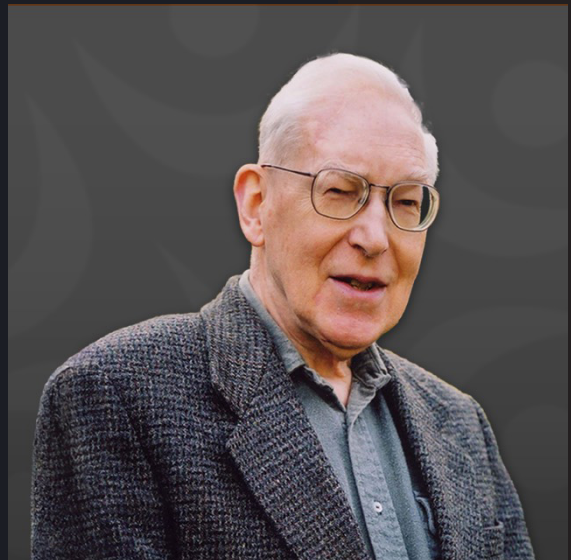

True knowledge of Jesus moves a person to transformation, so our classes encourage users to ask what they have learned about God, themselves, and others, and how that affects their attitudes and behaviors.

Because Jesus requires us to “make disciples of all nations by ... teaching them to obey everything he commanded his disciples,” BiblicalTraining offers a comprehensive education covering all the basic fields of biblical and theological content at different academic levels.

DR. JAMES I PACKER

Board of Governors Professor of Theology, Regent College.

“The vision that drives Biblical Training is twofold. The first part of the dream is that every Christian should be educated and equipped for the fullest use of their spiritual gifts in serving others for Christ’s sake. The second part of the dream is that Christian education up to seminary standard should be available free to anyone who can work a computer. What a magnificent, momentous dream! And now it is coming true as more and more courses are made available on the Biblical Training website. May God prosper Biblical Training mightily! I cannot commend the venture too highly.”
